Remarks

A stately arrival sets the tone for this exceptional custom residence, thoughtfully positioned on over one acre within the gates of The Concession. Blending modern luxury with architectural refinement, the home offers a rare combination of privacy, elegance, and timeless design in one of Lakewood Ranch's most exclusive communities. Custom double entry doors welcome you into a light-filled interior where engineered hardwood floors anchor the main living spaces and a dramatic wall of sliding glass doors frame serene water views, seamlessly connecting indoor and outdoor living. At the heart of the residence, the chef's kitchen is both polished and highly functional, appointed with Monogram and Caf appliances and anchored by a generous statement quartz island that serves as both focal point and gathering space. Designed to flow effortlessly into the great room and outdoor living areas, the layout supports both elevated entertaining and comfortable everyday living. Architectural elements define the great room, where a custom-designed accent wall showcases intricate detailing, a sleek linear fireplace, and an oversized mounted television, creating a striking focal point that balances warmth with modern design. Trav ceilings throughout further enhance the home's architectural
